MRS. DANIEL WENCIL HERNCALL

Bonnie Jean Pugh Weds Daniel Wencil Herncall

The marriage of Miss Bonnie Jean Pugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Pugh Jr. of Lynchburg, to Daniel Wencil Herncall son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin A. Herncall of Appomattox, took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in Euclid Christian Church.

The Rev. Herbert R. Moore officiated. Robert L. Layne of Springfield, organist, and David E. Goode of Lynchburg, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta, designed with an Empire bodice and finished with scoop neckline and long tapered sleeves. The floor length skirt was designed in A-line style with full train. Her veil of fingertip imported illusion was held by a cluster of lace petals with seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and white carnations.

Miss Debra Leigh Pugh, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a full length gown of pink print voile with Empire bodice and long sleeves. She wore a pink carnation headpiece and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Other attendants were Miss Cynthia Reid Pugh, sister of the bride, Miss Anne Elizabeth Herncall of Appomattox, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Joan Elizabeth Smith of Richmond, Miss Louise Walton Mauro of Arnold, Md., and Miss Linda Susan Hall of Springfield. Their gowns were similar in design to that of the honor attendant. Each wore a headpiece of yellow carnations and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

Jo Anne Stanley, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Dewey Coleman Floyd of Appomattox was best man. Ushers were John Reginald Pugh III, brother of the bride, Donald Gray Blankinship, Ronald Leo Cox of Bedford, Forrest Strader Wagoner II of Richmond, Robert Kent Stanley, cousin of the bridegroom, and Tim Harvey of Altavista, formerly of Lynchburg.

The parents of the bride were hosts for a reception at their home, 3908 Peakland Place, following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of E. C. Glass High School and attended Radford College. She will receive a BA degree in Elementary Education from Lynchburg College in June.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Appomattox High School and attended Duke University. He will receive a BS in business from Lynchburg College in August.

After a Southern wedding trip, the couple will live in Lynchburg.

On the move. The Chevrolet '70s.

Our new one: Monte Carlo

Our big one: Caprice

Our tough one: Chevelle SS 396

Monte Carlo. Our whole new field of one.
The first truly luxurious personal car even us guys who work for a living can afford.
Big 350-cubic-inch V8. Power disc brakes. Deep twist carpeting. All standard.
Some car, the Monte Carlo.
Some cars will be wishing we had never brought it out.
Moving on. Caprice.
The perfect car for "the big car man."
For 1970 we gave it a new grille, new 250-hp standard V8, new fiberglass-belted tires, new colors, new trim.
New headaches for higher priced cars.
Moving on. Chevelle SS 396.
The Chevellest Chevelle yet.
Now you can order a Cowl Induction Hood to help the horse breathe. All 350 of them.
Move on.
To your Chevrolet dealer's.

Anybody For A Leopard

The model is "for real!" -- our own "Miss Appomattox" but that "leopard" that seemingly just came out of the pines is a new fashion hit – 'fun furs!" in a fabric-fur which Carscoette Garrett made into a stunning coat to go with her gold-apricot shift dress. Both Carscoette and her leopard coat will be an attraction of this year's Tobacco Festival in Richmond the week-end of October 4. Carscoette is a Madison College junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Garrett of Concord. She is the latest in a long line of delightful title winners to represent Appomattox in the yearly competition for Queen of Tobaccoland.
